

15 Questions to Ask at Dinner

1. What are you especially grateful for right now?
2. What is one kind thing that you did for someone else today?
3. What is one kind thing that someone else did for you today?
4. What are your favorite stories that grandpa/grandma told (or still tells)?
5. For an adult: What did you have as a child that kids today don't have? How was your life better? How was it worse?
6. For a kid: What do you have that previous generations didn't have? How would your life be better without it? How would it be worse?
7. Who has taught you something important about life? What did they teach you?
8. For adult: What was your favorite movie or book when you were my age?
9. For kid: What was your favorite movie or book last year, and what is your favorite now?
10. What was the hardest thing you went through/have gone through as a child? How did you overcome it?
11. If you could know anything about our family history or about a relative who has passed away, what would you want to know?
12. What is the most embarrassing thing your mother or father ever did to you?
13. What three adjectives would your grandparents use to describe you?
14. What is the best thing that your grandparents ever cooked? What about your parents?
15. How are you most different from your parents and grandparents? How are you the same?